SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

This is the fourth year Superintendent J. P. Young has been at Columbus High School. During these four years all the students have grown to love and respect him. No matter how busy he happens to be, he takes time out to solve our problems, and he always greets the students with a warm smile and a friendly "hello".

Before coming to Columbus High School, Mr. Young was Superintendent of Schools at Carroll, Iowa, and David City, Nebraska. He received his B. S. and M. A. degrees at the University of Nebraska.

Lester Ernst; Mrs. I. Person; Mrs. I. E. Levine; Superintendent J. P. Young; John Schultz; N. C. Rogers; George Johnsen; Vance E. Leininger.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the Columbus Schools is the backbone and promoter of the city's educational system. They have the job of guiding us through our education, but their main objective is to set up the policies and rules that insure the students of Columbus schools the very best of educational opportunities.

The members of the Board of Education are John W. Schultz, president; N. C. Rogers, vice-president; Lester C. Ernst, secretary; and other board members are Mrs. I. E. Levine, J. P. Young, George Johansen, Vance E. Leininger, and Mrs. Ina Person, office secretary. All board members have prominent businesses and professions of their own.

Giving credit where credit has been earned, we give it to the Board of Education for backing us with their knowledge, experience, and counsel.

PRINCIPAL

After his first year as Principal of Columbus High School, Mr. Paul Miller is fast becoming a good friend to students and faculty alike. Throughout the year Mr. Miller has worked hard to improve the school plan. Although it is as new to him as it is to us, Mr. Miller was the one who dropped the quarterly exams and lengthened the time for the semester examinations. With the years to come, let us hope that he keeps up the good work.

Mr. Miller received his M. A. degree at the University of Nebraska.

Band

Arrayed in maroon and white uniforms, the 76 piece Columbus High School band, under the direction of Kenneth A. Johnson, brought home a superior rating for their precision marching on the Grand Island football field at the Harvest of Harmony marching band contest held there October 20.

On October 13 the band received an "A" rating for its street parading at the University of Nebraska Band Day at Lincoln.

The Nebraska Music Convention Clinic was held at York on November 16, 17, and 18 with the following students participating: Richard Grant, Karen Norton, Gail Drahota, and Fannie Gloor.

The annual mid-winter concert was presented February 19 and 21. The program, featuring all sections of the band, consisted of a wide variety of classical compositions, such as "Zampa Overture," selections from Wagner, and "Symphony Number 5 in E Minor" by Dvorak and novelty music such as "Guess Conductor," "Doll Dance," and "Disc Jockey."

On March 2 the band attended the Mid-East Band Festival at Beatrice. Guest Conductor and Adjudicator was Frank A. Piersol, director of bands of Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa.

The band presented half-time maneuvers at all home football games adding color and pep to the school spirit. The pep band played for home basketball games, pep rallies, and performed for various civic groups. Accompanying the basketball team to the district tournament at Hastings, the pep band also added its enthusiasm to the morale of the team.

Band officers elected for the year were as follows: Richard Grant, president; Harold Dey, vice-president; Karen Norton, secretary; and Daniel Grace, treasurer.

The freshmen of 1951 have pledged to be true Discoverers of Kramer High School.

We like all freshmen, have met new friends and new teachers. We have become acquainted with the different subjects and the regulations of the school. We have already contributed a large number of freshmen to following organizations: band, Y-Teens, booster club, chorus, girls' glee, boys' glee, dramatics, student council, Future Farmers of America, Future Homemakers, majorettes, cheerleaders, freshmen football, basketball, track, and baseball.

Showing that we have a talent among our ranks, we have four majorettes—Mary Ann Dietrich, Loretta Williams, Barbara Ewert, and Patricia Spitz; one cheerleader, Sandra Peterson. In our sports section we have two lettermen—Jack Hasselbalch and Richard Miller. Richard Miller also played varsity football. We also have three student council officers—Richard Miller, treasurer; Byron Speice, editor; and Sandra Peterson, secretary.

The sophomore class of 1951 has successfully assumed its duties as the up and coming upperclassmen.

Our class has many talents and unlimited capabilities, which will help us to become successful leaders. These talents have already been displayed by our participation in the following organizations: Band, Y--Teens, Booster Club, Choir, Girls' Glee, Boys' Glee, Dramatics, Student Council, Future Homemakers of America, Future Farmers of America, "C" Club, Hi-Y, Football, Basketball, Track, and Baseball.

Jeanette Fickel is secretary of Y-Teens, Mary Lois Stone, president of Thespians; and Sally Schwantje, treasurer of Booster Club.

Junior Librarian officers are Naomi Loseke, secretary, first semester; Colleen McEnerney, treasurer first semester and Kay Vonderlage, treasurer second semester.

Last year our class was led by Kay Vonderlage, president; Lowell Henggeler, vice-president; and Mary Lois Stone, secretary-treasurer.

The Student Council is the representative body of the school. Its members are representative from homerooms and from the organizations of the school. This year, the Student Council was led by Ruth Kluck, president; Gordon Goldenstein, vice-president; Sandra Peterson, secretary; Richard Miller, treasurer; and Byron Speice, editor; with Mary Rankin and Vernon Persell, sponsors.

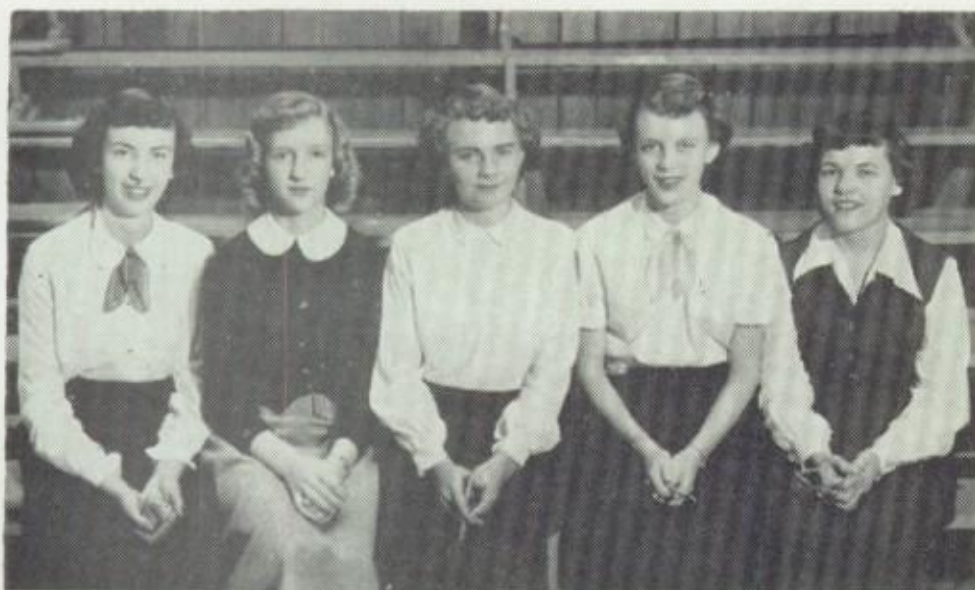

Among the duties of the Student Council, we find its members maintaining the information desk, checking lockers, cars, and bicycles, sponsoring dances, and co-ordinating activities of the school.

This year, for the first time, we had our meetings during the noon hour because of the many conflicts after school. This plan proved quite successful.

In October Ruth Kluck, Fannie Gloor, and Richard Grant attended the State Student Council Convention in Grand Island.

The Student Council sponsored an educational exhibit with Richard Grant and Daniel Grace co-chairmen.

Our new school flag, designed by Shirley Rieken, is the result of a Student Council project.

The Commercial Club of Columbus High School was organized in 1942. Membership in the club is limited to students with commercial majors who meet definite requirements in typing, shorthand, or bookkeeping.

The club membership is divided into committees which alternate in planning and carrying out the programs. The executive board makes the overall plans and acts as the coordinator of the club. The executive board consists of Shirley Oppliger, president; Lucille Aerni, vice-president and Student Council representative; Virgene Schmit, secretary; Sandra Davis, news reporter; Lois Brakenhoff, treasurer; and Miss Mary Albro, sponsor.

The club tries to sponsor programs of educational value, such as films, skits, speakers from business houses, and the annual Mother's Tea at which the junior members are initiated.

One of the important highlights of the Hi-Y was the Youth and Government Program held at the State House in Lincoln. This program was inaugurated for the first time this year and is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A.'s. Daniel Grace, Harlan Petter, and Gerald Karlin attended as legislators; and Harold Dey was elected Chief Justice by the legislators. Mr. Herbert Alpers and Mr. D. Lee Grace attended as sponsors.

Other activities in which the Hi-Y members participated are a hayrack ride, a formal initiation, a basketball tournament, and an annual spring date night.

The officers for this year are Harold Dey, president; Daniel Grace, vice-president; Robert Plantz, secretary; Harlan Petter, treasurer; James Jelden, chaplain, Richard Grant, sergeant-at-arms; and Herbert Alpers and Kermitt Stuve, sponsors.

With Miss Henrietta Raney, sponsor, and Mrs. Lois Kaveney, co-sponsor, the Y-Teens had a busy, but successful year.

Social events included a hobo party, a sock dance as date night, and the annual heart sister banquet which was the climax of the year terminating heart sister week, February 14 to 20. Special guests at regular meetings were Miss Dorothy Pile, Nebraska Executive Secretary of Y-Teens and Mrs. O. N. Sheely of Grand Island.

Jeanette Fickel and Carolyn Engel attended Camp Merrill at Fullerton last summer. Camp Merrill is a training school and workshop held each summer for Y-Teen members.

The organization has been guided during the year by Beatrice Kluver, president; Carolyn Engel, vice-president; Jeanette Fickel, secretary; and Marian Stahl, treasurer.

DISCOVERER STAFF

The 1951 paper staff has completed a successful year of publishing The Discoverer. Heading the staff were Mary Reese, editor; Virginia VanBerg, business manager; and Gerald Mueller, advertising manager.

Burns Ellison, sports editor, won first place in the Class A sports writing contest at the Nebraska High School Press Conference. Don Wolfe, staff photographer, placed third in the photography contest. A larger number of students than ever before attended the conference.

The Discoverer is represented in the Student Council with Patsy Jacobs being the first to hold this position. A staff awards convocation was held in January to present awards to the 1951 staff and to introduce the staff for 1952. Heading this staff are Ida Lou Williams, editor; Gordon Goldenstein, business manager; and Sandra Briswalter, advertising manager.

Columbus High School, through the paper, belongs to the National Scholastic Press Association and the Nebraska High School Press Association. Miss Gladys Grace is the staff sponsor.

Choir

On October 22 the choir, under the direction of Miss Margaret A. Shelley, made its first appearance for the year by presenting a varied program before the public; the following afternoon it was given before the student body. The same performance was again presented to the York High School students on October 24 as an exchange program. Some of the selections included in this program were "Music Makers," "Heavenly Light," "Country Style", and "I'll Never Turn Back No Mo'."

The vocal groups presented their Vesper Service December 16. The concert consisted of both secular and sacred music. The Girls' Glee sang such outstanding numbers as "Turn Ye

To Me," "Take Joy Home," "Afar on the Purple Moor," and Prayer from "Hansel and Gretel." The Boys' Glee sang "The Donkey Serenade," "On Parade," and "Climbin' Up the Mountain."

On November 16, 17, and 18, nine members of the choir attended the Nebraska Music Convention Clinic, held at York. Those participating were Betty Olson, Ruth Feye, Ann Renee Umland, Maureen Maurer, Mary Lou Reitmeyer, Beatrice Kluver, Rollo Trofholz, Robert Gaver, and Wayne Hunkins.

To the small groups much credit is due for their many public appearances, such as the Chamber of Commerce, Sports Rally, and school programs.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

We juniors having had a taste of being upper classmen have successfully completed our third year in high school and are ready for our final year as seniors.

Leading the unforgettable freshman class of 1950 were Harlan Petter, president; Charles Brentzel, vice-president; Sandra Welch, secretary; and Ann Luchsinger, treasurer.

During the year Beverly Egger was chosen as majorette to help lead the band. Sandra Briswalter was chosen as a substitute cheerleader. We also shared in participation of Booster Club, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers of America, and a large number of music groups.

"Buy your pencils here," says Gordon Goldenstein as he sells some of the Student Council's school supplies to Beatrice Kluver, Zona Buss, and Ronald Tschauner. (Not pictured—Duane Peterson.)

Juniors

Coming up for our second year as sophomores, we, indeed, needed efficient officers. We chose Robert Pope, president; Donald Ehlers, vice-president; and Shirley Ewert, secretary-treasurer. Many honors were bestowed to the sophomores during this memorable year. Shirley Hoveling was chosen cheerleader and several lettermen joined the "C" club. Ann Luchsinger and James Murphy were the attendants to the sports rally. Along the dramatic line several of the sophomores joined the Thespian organization. Our sponsor these first two years was K. R. Bailey.

And now this year—our first year of being upper classmen, several other boys lettered in sports. Sandra Briswalter was chosen as a cheerleader. Our successful sports rally, "Dog Patch," was lead by the class officers—Gerald Karlin, president; Ann Luchsinger, vice-president; Betty Olson, secretary; and Harlan Petter, treasurer, and under the able supervision of our sponsors, Ula Mae Schall and Robert Costello. Other organizations progressed with the help of Louis Welch, secretary of FFA; Shirley Ewert, vice-president of FHA; Harlan Petter, treasurer of Hi-Y; Elaine Michaelsen, vice-president of Junior Librarians; Gordon Goldenstein, vice-president of Student Council; Susan Bakenhus, vice-president and Alyce Zwiener, secretary of Thespians; and Bea Kluver, president and Carolyn Engel, vice-president of Y-Teens. Violet Inselman received the honor of being chosen queen of "Harvest of Harmony" in Grand Island. Charles Speice and Marilyn Burman were chosen king and queen of "Twelfth Night." Janice Potter and Ronald Tschauner were attendants for the junior class at the sports rally.

The junior-senior prom was held at the high school gym April 25. The theme was a street cafe scene in Paris, and the gym was decorated accordingly.

LaVon Berends, Darlene Louis, Ginger Mahlin, and Verna Navrkal are working diligently to make their O. A. T. for the typing requirements.

Checking out uniforms in the locker rooms, you see Charles Speice, Robert Pope, James Murphy, and Harlan Petter, all football lettermen.

Taking advantage of the new mirror on second floor are Shirley Mae Ewert, Ann Luchsinger, Violet Stevenson, Sandra Briswalter, and Bernice Albers.

By the looks of Harold Coulter, Mary Johannes, Clarence Muhle, and Susan Bakenhus, they seem to be enjoying English class.

Mr. Alpers is explaining one of the many machines in shop to Larrell Aikins, James Hudson, Leander Stachura, Rolland Stevenson, and Robert Alliss as they diligently watch him.

These juniors don't seem to be in a hurry to get to their classes. They are Genene Berends, Vernice Menke, Thomas Bradley, Vernon Nelson, and William Eihausen.

Discussing the "World News of the Week," you see Larry Inselman, Donald Schupbach, John Moje, Walter Joseph, and Fredric Kluck in history class.

Going over their report cards with Mr. Miller are Mary Lou Reitmeyer, Shirley Rieken, Melvin Nosal, and Gary Nantkes.

Jerry Steinmeyer, Donald Ingold, Richard Brentzel, and Carroll Ensminger study the vacuum pump, one of the machines in the physics laboratory.

The library is one of Columbus High's finest facilities. Dorothy VanAmpting, Marlene Elston, Harold Liles, Max Heller, and Ida Lou Williams are making use of some of its materials.

After a semester of journalism, Marilyn Burman, Marilyn Murphy, Sally O'Neal, Ruth Feye, and Betty Olson look over some of the old Discoverers.

All eyes are focused on the drill press while Mr. Costello explains a lesson in metal shop to Robert Kasper, James Ernst, Frederick Flamme, and Ervin Lindeman.

"What's cooking?" Why not ask Patricia Walden, Darlene Flamme, Ruth Gigax, or Willa Mae Lusche. They seem to have the situation well in hand.

The office is Columbus High's center of information. Here Mrs. Person is giving information to Carolyn Engel, Barbara Douglass, Jo Ann Christensen, and Mildred Fittje.

Dorothy Hoefelman and Janice Mueller wait patiently for Roxie Lind, Violet Inselman, and Beverly Kuk as they continue to their next class.

Admiring some of the basketball, track, and football trophies are Gerald Karlin, Ver-netta Behrens, Philip Hockenberger, and Sheila Broderick.

Glancing over the football schedule at the bulletin board are Shirley Tredway, Shirley Hoveling, Elaine Weyen, Shirley Wunderlich, and Alice Runge.

Receiving a little vocal instruction from Miss Shelley are Dorothy Penington, Janice Potter, Elaine Michaelsen, Glenda Kush, and Mary Lou Miller.

September 14 officially opened the football season for 1951, as the Discoverers fell before a hard fighting York team 6-7. Columbus led throughout the game but lost on a fumble with 72 seconds remaining.

The following week Columbus traveled to Blair and had little trouble in racking up a 24-0 victory.

Grand Island, the state's top eleven for several years, came to Columbus with high expectations of repeating the overwhelming 1950 victory; but the hard fighting Maroons fought to a terrific 6-7 in the first half. The Islanders then came back to score two touchdowns in the second half to set the Maroons their second setback 6-21.

With revenge on their minds, Columbus traveled to Hastings for the next game. The Maroons started off with a 12-0 first quarter lead but failed to score throughout the remainder of the game and dropped a 12-19 decision in a field of mud and freezing rain.

The following week on the home field the Discoverers handed Schuyler a 32-0 tromping.

The Maroons again took to the road this time, traveling to Fremont to battle one of the top ten teams in the State and also to get possession of the famed "F and C" trophy, but fate took a hand and Fremont took a hard fought battle 6-13.

On a rainy and muddy night the Maroons met the Norfolk Panthers on the home gridiron. Despite the slippery field, the Discoverers went on to hand the Panthers a 39-7 defeat.

For their last game away the Discoverers traveled to Fairbury to take an easy 43-13 decision over the hard fighting Jeffs.

With the season coming to a close, the Maroons played host to a new-comer on the schedule, Ord. The Discoverers handed Ord a 47-0 romp, thus closing the football season and ringing down the curtain on high school football for ten seniors.

James Schultz scored on a quarterback sneak as Schuyler was tramped 32-0.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

During the fall of '48, we, the inexperienced ones known as freshmen, entered Columbus High School. We completed a successful year under the guidance of our sponsor, Miss Martha Brockman. Those chosen to lead our class were Mary Reese, president; Burns Ellison, vice-president; Sharon Livingston, secretary; and Marvin Plugge, treasurer. We were honored by having Janice Asche represent our class as a cheerleader.

As we entered our sophomore year, our thoughts were saddened by the death of our classmate, Roger Loseke. This year we found more of our members taking part in school activities. Leading the class of '52 were Shirley Oppliger, president; James Schultz, vice-president; Norma Jean Andrews, secretary; and Gail Drahota, treasurer. This year we had two cheer leaders chosen from our class—Janice Asche and Patricia Drew. Corinne Gaver capably took over a position as majorette in the Columbus High School Band. The "C" club claimed Harold Miles, Frederick Geiser, Alvin Ernst, James Pope, Donald Murray, and Richard Grant. Many others participated in other large and small groups throughout the school.

Many thought that half the battle was won—we were now entering our junior year. On returning for our junior year, we missed the presence of one of our classmates, Harold Miles, who had met death in a horse accident.

Leading the class were Robert Plantz, president; Ellen Feye, vice-president; Charlotte Hobbs, secretary; and Jerome Mihulka, treasurer. Vergene Frost and Ruth Morlok served as president and treasurer respectively of Y-Teens, while Sandra Davis, secretary, and Mary Reese, treasurer, helped to lead the Booster club. We took great enjoyment in presenting the annual Junior Sports Rally, the theme of which was the "Gay Nineties." Gail Drahota and Donald Murray were the attendants to the king and queen. Miss Martha Brockman was assisted by Mr. William Carroll, a newcomer to the faculty.

During this year Daniel Grace served as vice-president of Hi-Y and Shirley Oppliger was vice-president of Booster club while James Gaver was chosen head cheerleader.

Gail Drahota and Daniel Grace were our representatives to Girls' and Boys' State. Gail represented the American Legion Auxiliary and Daniel Grace represented the Lions' Club.

We were quite proud of our Junior-Senior prom, "South Pacific," which was taken from the stage play by the same name. James Schultz was master of ceremonies.

With the best years of our lives nearing completion, we entered the last lap of our high school days—our senior year. Our leaders this year proved to be James Schultz, president; Wallace Buchholz, vice-president; David Clark, secretary; and Marlin Glasner, treasurer.

Miss Martha Brockman was assisted by Mr. Kermitt Stuve. One of the highlights of the year was the crowning of the homecoming queen, Gail Drahota, with Fannie Gloor, Carolee Selichnow, Sandra Davis, Shirley Oppliger, and Ruth Kluck acting as her attendants.

Janice Asche was given the title of head cheerleader for the year.

Edward Zuroski and Janice Asche reigned as King and Queen of Sports at the Junior Sports Rally, November 30.

On December 10 and 11, we presented our senior play, "We Shook the Family Tree," with Mr. K. R. Bailey as director and Jean Dilley, student director. The cast included Ellen Feye, Marlin Glasner, Sharon Livingston, Donald Rice, Charlotte Hobbs, Wallace Buchholz, Lois Brakenhoff, Nancy Swanson, Arloa Bakenhus, Robert Plantz, William Schwartzer, and Shannon Wibbels.

Joyce McMeekin was first place winner in the local "I Speak for Democracy" contest sponsored by the State Junior Chamber of Commerce.

We of the senior class would like to take this opportunity to thank the juniors for their memorable prom held April 25, 1952.

Nearing the end of our high school career, we eagerly look forward to receiving our diploma. Baccalaureate was held at the high school auditorium May 18. This was followed by Commencement held at the City Auditorium May 22 with Dr. K. O. Broady of the University of Nebraska speaker.

The 1952 Annual Staff has tried to record events of the past school year—events worth remembering. We hope this book will serve as a living memory book portraying the highlights of Columbus High School. In the future when you look through this annual, we hope you will be reminded of your gains, not only in knowledge but also in friendship, from your high school experiences.

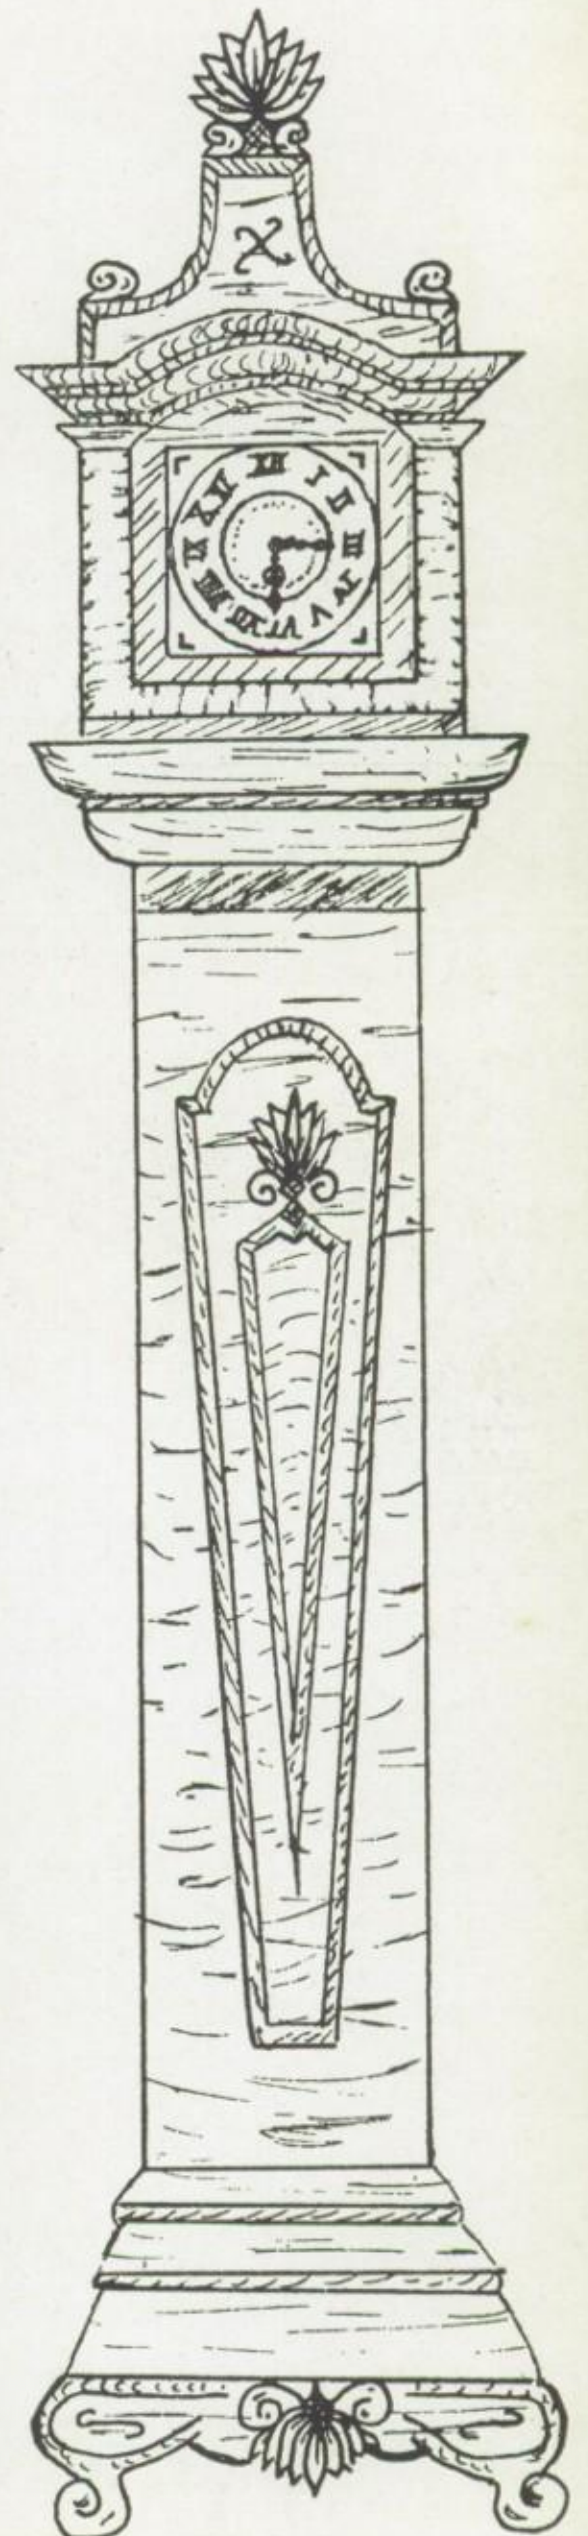

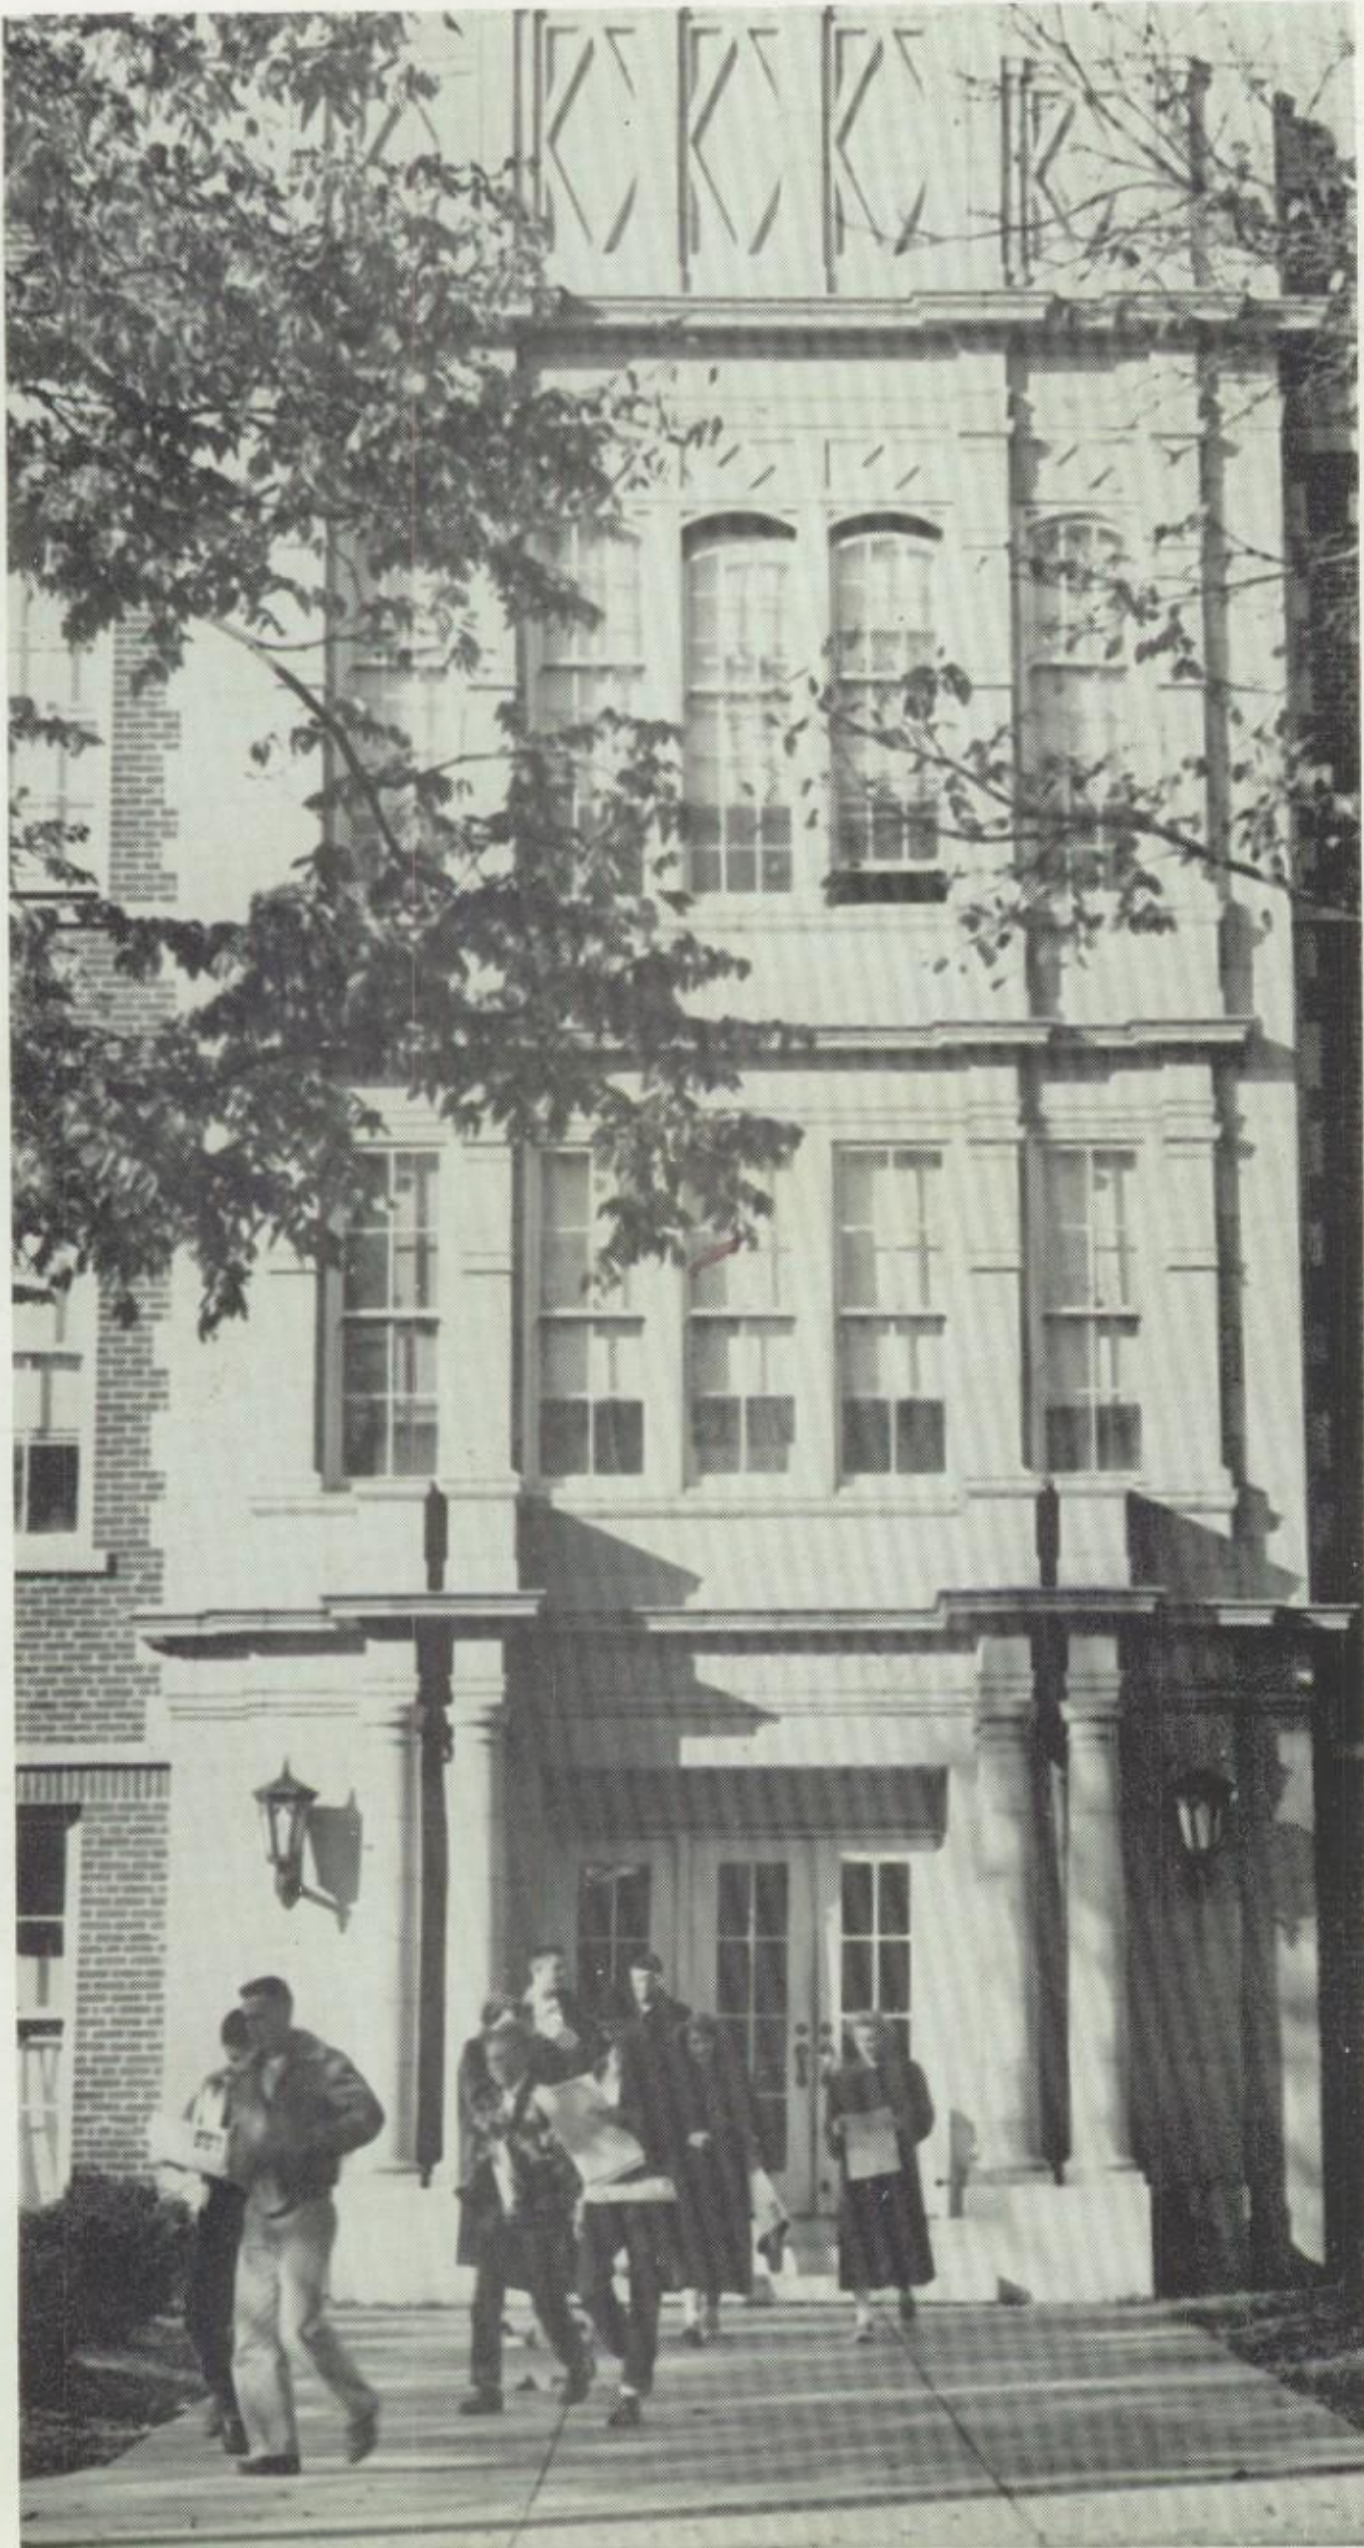

The staff is to be commended for its fine cooperation because it is only through cooperation that so much can be accomplished. It is only through actual experience that we have learned of the great amount of time and work that goes into the making of this annual. Much credit is also due Miss Eleanore Limes, our sponsor, whose capable guidance helped us through our many trials and tribulations.

As the editor of this yearbook, I sincerely hope that it will help you to remember all the fun and enjoyment you have had in your high school career.

Farewell!

Donna Garbers, Darlene Schulte, and Norma Sutton are looking at material being shown to them at SCHWESER'S.

Stephen Bordy, Billy Bonner, and Maris Bergmanis watch while the man at COLUMBUS PLANING MILL explains how the machine works.

Darrell Ahrens looks on while the salesman at POLLY SHOE STORE shows a pair of saddles to Phyllis Blahak and Patricia Arasmith.

Arden Saalfeld, Gary Nantkes, Edwen Speicher, and Donald Williams look as if they were ready for any customers at the LOHR PETROLEUM COMPANY.

While Clinton Gehring looks at one jacket, Burns Ellison, Philip Hockenberger, and Samuel Drinnin look on as Duane Peterson tries on a jacket at CURRY BROTHERS.

Roy From, Terry Gaver, and Sylvia Becher are looking at a new sink at RECTOR, HIRSCHBRUNNER & HANKE.

Joe Soulliere and Donald Swanson look on as Dianne Loseke tries out the new Dodge at CHARLIE BALL MOTOR COMPANY.

"Quality Comes First" at the MODERN CLEANERS & DYERS.

Delores Klug, Betty Liles, and Darlene Beem have tried on the latest in winter clothing at LEVINE BROTHERS.

David Kraus, Paul Wuethrich, and Arlyn Went watch the men load the truck at GLUR CEMENT WORKS.

James Gaver, Neil Welch, and Frederick Geiser give approval to the shirt that Rollo Trofholz has picked out at the new LARSON-KUHN CLOTHING STORE for men and boys.

Elaine Muhle, Goldyn Hook, and Jean Ofzarzak are resting and visiting in the lounge at the CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK.

Sandra Knox, John Evans, and Jack Kosinski are admiring the new '52 Pontiac at the A. E. TROWBRIDGE PONTIAC COMPANY.

Quality furniture is what you'll find at ALEXAND FURNITURE COMPANY. James Ernst, Susan Bak-ehus, and Larry Inselman seem to agree.

Jeanie Frey seems to have made her purchase and is now helping JoAnn Mueller pick out her winter coat at MARJORIE'S SMART SHOP. Janice Behle is looking on giving her approval.

Mildred Fittje, Elaine Weyen, and Ginger Mahlin are admiring the appliances at CONSUMERS PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT.

Philip Hockenberger and Robert Pope seem very interested in the affairs at BECHER, HOCKENBERGER & CHAMBERS COMPANY.

For quality feeds follow the suggestion of Larry Elston, Richard Hughes, and David Janicek and go to COLUMBUS FEED & SEED STORE.

Edward Nielsen is demonstrating the new Chevrolet for Donald Mueller and Duane Mikkelsen at NIELSEN CHEVROLET COMPANY.

Mr. Neater is pointing out the qualities of the cameras at DANIEL-NEATER STUDIO to Dennis Rosendahl, Virginia Blaser, Darlene Grotelueschen, and Carl Reddel.

*Take it easy from now on
D. Grotelueschen*

Betty Guenther, Jean Dilley, and Maija Bergmanis are receiving financial advice from SPEICE-ECHOLS BOETTCHER COMPANY.

Donald Lundin, Arnold Muhle, and Melvin Nosal are seen at THOMSON SEED COMPANY. For finest seed, always think first of THOMSON'S.

Verna Navrkal, Beverly Egger, and Marilyn Burman are choosing a record to be played for them at COLUMBUS MUSIC COMPANY. Got a popular tune you'd like to hear? COLUMBUS MUSIC COMPANY is the place to go.

Service with a smile is what you'll get at the MIESLER DRUG STORE. Sally O'Neal and Sharon Rozanek are enjoying themselves waiting on customers.

Jack and Virginia VanBerg are explaining some of the details of the COLUMBUS SALES PAVILION to Vernon Nelson and Dennis Reistroffer.

David Janicek, Alyce Zweiner, and Marlene Janicek are viewing a new Admiral television set at the new HOME APPLIANCE COMPANY.

For quality lumber go to VIERGUTZ LUMBER & COAL COMPANY. Stanley Kula and Merle Mueller are resting for the moment on the truck in lumber yard.

For school or office supplies the ART PRINTERY is the place to go. Max Heller, James Hudson, Betty Becker, and Donna Camp are considering purchase of school materials.

Mr. Miller of MILLER ALLIED SECURITIES COMPANY is explaining the details of borrowing money to Zona Buss, Judd Wagner, Gordon Goldenstein, and Charlotte Hobbs.

PERSON'S SPORT SHOP is the place to go for any kind of sport equipment you may need. Ronald Tschauner, Jack Ingold, Charles Johansen, and Gordon Ernst are trying to decide on a gun.

Do you want your old clothes to look like new at low cost? Thomas Bradley, William Eihausen, and Harold Coulter say, "COLUMBUS LAUNDRY for you."

Interested in a new Ford? Mr. Rogers of ROGERS MOTOR COMPANY has evidently interested Ann Luchsinger, Clarence Muhle, and Ervin Lindeman.

Violet Stevenson, Shirley Ewert, and Barbara Boyd are admiring the beautiful lines of the Capehart radio-phonographs at T&S APPLIANCE COMPANY.

Ann Renee Umland, Willa Mae Lusche, Elaine Bredchoft, and Anna Fern Keeler are smiling happily at the thought of a new dress from the BLUE BIRD.

Donald Hutchison and LeRoy Hopkin look on as Richard Grant explains how to operate the new Kaiser at HI-WAY MOTORS.

Karen Asche, Sandra Peterson, Russell Gertsch, and Duane Peterson are resting while some good features of the furniture are pointed out to them at KAVICH FURNITURE STORE.

Audrey Trofholz helps Nancy Swanson and Geraldine Podraza pick out some cosmetics at TOOLEY DRUG COMPANY.

Robert Wurdeman and Ray Trofholz watch carefully as one of the workers at FLEISCHER-SCHMID CORPORATION performs his job for them.

Patricia Kuk, Virginia Kinzer, and LaVonne Levos examine the upholstery of the Plymouth car at MID-STATE MOTORS.

Marlene Weber and Jerry Swanson look very thirsty as they watch the process of bottling cokes at COCA COLA BOTTLING COMPANY.

Robert Alliss, Richard Brentzel, and Walter Joseph are learning how this machine is operated at BEHLEN MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

Lee Blaser is giving Delane Bell and Gerald Siemek a ride in the new Studebaker at WILKEN MOTOR COMPANY.

Christa Bickel, Alice Runge, Janice Mueller, and Darlene Louis are admiring a pair of shoes that the salesman at WOODRICK & ALLEN is showing to them.

James Loseke, Bruce Brandenburg, and Gerald Saunders look on as Frederic Krebs tries the paint sprayer at SOIL MOVER CORPORATION.

It looks as if Edith Muth, Joan Biggs, and JoAnn Osborn wish that they could open the box of chocolates at E. M. BIGGS & SON.

Robert Gaver and Jack Haldiman are seeing the many different kinds of women's shoes being pointed out to them at BUCK'S BOOTERIE.

Leander Stachura, Kenneth Janssen, Kathryn Klug, and Beverly Krzycki are viewing the new International Refrigerator at EWERT BROTHERS.

For a variety of dairy goods go to COLUMBUS MEAT MARKET. There we find Joyce Ahrens, Kathryn Johnston, and James Herde.

Joyce Edwards, Eloyse Bodenhamer, Shirley Wunderlich, and Patsy Jacobs are enjoying a root beer at Y-KNOT-DRIVE INN.

Cary Ellison, Patricia Reistroffer, and Benita Kavich are looking at a new range at CENTRAL ELECTRIC & GAS COMPANY.

Wayne Loseke, Lyle Hansen, and Jack Florendo are just going into the IRRIGATION PUMP COMPANY.

Hart Keating, Larry Blaser, and LeRoy Krzycki are enjoying a Dr. Pepper at the DR. PEPPER BOTTLING COMPANY.

For the best furniture go to BRAZEAL FURNITURE. There we find Alice Andrews, Marion Groteluschen, and Nadine Ochs.

Carroll Ensminger, Jerry Steinmeyer, and Charles Rundell are learning about the COLUMBUS GRAIN COMPANY.

For the latest fashions go to the IRENE SHOP. There we find Marilyn Kaspersen, Ardis Levine, and Collette Hodges dressed in the latest style.

For information about any products from HABCO MANUFACTURING COMPANY, see Roland, Elaine or Keith Arndt.

For car repair service go to ARCHWAY MOTORS. Patricia Spitz and Donna Lincoln might be discussing some repair job.

James Jelden, Kathleen Gerhold, Florence Kolm, and Bernice Albers are reading some pamphlets from the GERHOLD COMPANY.

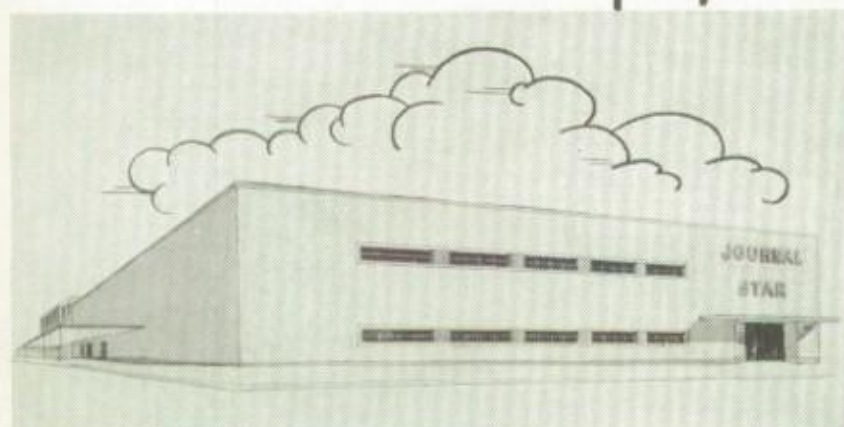

To give you clothes that new look, take them to JACKSON DRY CLEANER & LAUNDERER.
